

James P. Borgstede, MD, FACR

Dr. Borgstede is currently Professor and Vice Chairman of Radiology at the University of Colorado. His administrative responsibilities at the University of Colorado include clinical operations, departmental quality, safety, professional billing, coding, compliance, and human resources. His Vice Chairman responsibilities also include membership on the School of Medicine Clinical Leadership Council. His responsibilities with University of Colorado Medicine, Inc. (CU Medicine) include contract negotiations and membership on the Compliance Committee.

He is a past member of the AMA Relative Value Update Committee (RUC) where he served as chair of the Research Subcommittee.

He is past president of the American Board of Radiology. He is past president and past chairman of the board of the American College of Radiology (ACR).

Dr Borgstede was a member and chair of the Radiological Society of North America's Research and Education Foundation Board of Trustees. The Research and Education Foundation is one of the largest non-governmental grant providers for radiology research.

He was President of the Board of Directors of the Radiological Society of North America in 2020. From 2013-2017 he was the RSNA Board Liaison for International Affairs.

Dr Borgstede has a particular interest in international radiology service. He has arranged and performed two international service projects. One of these was at Silliman University Medical Center in Dumaguete City, Negros Oriental, Philippines where he and his family purchased and delivered diagnostic medical sonographic equipment to this hospital and trained the local personnel in its use. The second project was in Enongal Hospital, Ebolowa, Cameroon and was again focused on ultrasound.

Dr Borgstede started the American College of Radiology Committee on International Service and has performed 4 working visits to Grace Children's Hospital, Port au Prince Haiti.

He is past president of the International Society of Radiology.

Dr Borgstede is past president of the Colorado Physician Health Program (CPHP), the Colorado peer assistance program for physicians.

He is the past president of the Colorado State Board of Medical Examiners. He was a member of this board for 8 years and president for 5, completing his term in 2001.

Dr Borgstede's research is in the areas of socioeconomics, government relations, quality, and safety. He has delivered more than 120 lectures on these topics nationally and internationally.

Dr Borgstede was a member of a private radiology practice for 27 years in Colorado Springs where he also served as president. He left this practice in 2007 for a fellowship and research in Magnetic Resonance Imaging at the University of California at San Diego. His medical degree is from the University of Illinois (1974). He trained as radiology resident at the University of Colorado Health Science Center (1975-1978) where he was the Chief Resident in Radiology in 1978. The American Board of Radiology certified him in 1978.

In 2009 he was awarded the Gold Medal of the American College of Radiology which is their highest honor.

In 2012 he was awarded the first Gold Medal of the Colorado Radiological Society.

In 2014 he was honored with the President's Award for Leadership from the University of Colorado Hospital

In 2019 he was honored with the Presidential Citation for Meritorious Service Award by the University of Colorado Hospital. "In Recognition of Your Outstanding Contribution to the Organizational Performance Improvement, Patient Safety, and Clinical Outcomes and Your Enduring Commitment and Vision"

In 2019 he was honored by the Radiological Society of North America with their Honored Educator Award.