All official actions and policies of the Council are effective for only ten years unless extended for an additional ten-year period by the Council through an affirmative vote of a majority of members present at the Annual Meeting. Any resolution extending a Council policy for an additional ten-year period can include proposed substantive and editorial modifications to the policy proposed for extension, subject to approval by the Council. Actions and policies not extended by the Council by affirmative majority vote beyond ten years from their adoption are no longer official College policy, but are maintained by the ACR in a historical file.
