ATTORNEY REFERRAL INFORMATION

The ACR Legal Department provides referrals to attorneys for those radiologists and radiation oncologists who do not have representation, or who have an attorney but would like to consult with a specialist in a particular area of the law, such as medical staff bylaws. We also may provide general information on specific issues, such as contracts, with this referral sheet. Some of the information may be in sample format. Please be advised that any materials we provide are for informational purposes only and not meant to substitute for legal counsel.

While it is not essential that you have local counsel to represent you, your attorney should be familiar with your state law and administrative regulations pertaining to medical practice. Of course, it is important that you and the attorneys discuss fee arrangements, as well as the time they expect to spend on the matter, before retaining any of them to represent you.

Thank you for contacting the ACR Legal Department. If you need further assistance or have questions about the Business Practice Issues section of the web site, please call 1-800-227-5463 and ask for Elizabeth Rathburn or you may email her at erathburn@acr.org or legal@acr.org.

For more than 21 years, Knicole has maintained a health care litigation practice, concentrating on Medicare and Medicaid litigation, health care regulatory compliance, administrative and regulatory law. She defends health care providers against post payment reviews, prepayment reviews, suspension of reimbursements, allegations of fraud, False Claims Act, Anti Kickback, and other regulatory issues. Knicole has successfully litigated against RACs, MACs, UPICs, CERTs, TPE audits until, in many cases, the provider prevailed, owing nothing. She understands the intricate Medicare and Medicaid payment system, the unique business of health care providers, the overlay of federal and state Medicare and Medicaid rules and regulations, and actions of State agencies that affect the way health care entities operate. Knicole has tried over 2,000 administrative cases in over 35 States and has appeared before multiple States’ medical boards. Knicole has successfully obtained federal injunctions in numerous States, which allowed health care providers to remain in business despite the allegations of health care fraud or abhorrent billings based on data mining.

Mr. Hawk’s practice includes the representation of health systems, hospitals, pharmaceutical companies, pharmacy benefit management companies, physicians and physician organizations, and managed care organizations on a wide variety of federal and state regulatory matters, including fraud and abuse compliance, Stark Law compliance, and various certificate of need issues.
Jay Harris is head of the firm’s Healthcare Practice Group. Mr. Harris’ practice focuses on transactions in the healthcare industry and on the formation of new entities and structures for the delivery of healthcare services. He has extensive experience in acquisitions and divestitures of healthcare providers, including hospitals and health systems, home health and hospice agencies, long term care facilities, ambulatory surgical centers, physician practices, dialysis and diagnostic imaging providers, dental services companies and pharmacies. Mr. Harris has represented insurance companies and managed care organizations in numerous transactions, and has also represented private equity funds and other investors in the healthcare industry. His clients have included both for profit and nonprofit entities.
