

Lung Cancer Screening Registry and ACR Lung Cancer Screening Center Designation Comparison

---

	Lung Cancer Screening Registry (LCSR)	ACR Lung Cancer Screening Center Designation
Required for CMS reimbursement	Yes	No
Availability	Available to all facilities Open for registration May 2015 Data Submission Summer 2015	Available to all facilities who have achieved ACR CT Accreditation in at least the chest module
Fee	Dependent upon number of radiologists and sites involved	$400 per facility
Web address	http://www.acr.org/Quality-Safety/National-Radiology-Data-Registry/Lung-Cancer-Screening-Registry	http://www.acr.org/Quality-Safety/Lung-Cancer-Screening-Center
Submission requirements	Collect required data elements for submission to the registry interface	Mail or fax application, signed attestation, clinical data form filled out with lung cancer screening protocol (based on an average size patient study) and fee
Specifications	Data Elements Dictionary (see Lung Cancer Screening Registry webpage)	Technical Specifications (see Lung Cancer Screening Center webpage)
Summary	The Lung Cancer Screening Registry (LCSR) is approved by Center of Medicare and Medicaid Services to enable providers to meet quality reporting requirements to receive Medicare CT Lung Cancer screening payment.	The ACR Lung Cancer Screening Center Designation is a marketing tool that makes your site notable as a provider of safe, effective diagnostic care for those considered at high risk for lung cancer.